CC, F 31.12.1926, 2e Obituary of Samuel Galbraith (†26th December 1926, 83rd year, Torquay: ibid, 2a). Father had a grocery business in Ayr, and opened branches in Patna and Cumnock. Samuel first came to Cumnock over 60 years ago to assist at the Cumnock branch. The original shop was in the Square (presently occupied by Mr McGeorge). He then built property in the Square (now occupied by Mrs John Borland) but was refused a transfer of his licence, so remained at original shop. Subsequently built present premises, and developed substantial jam and jelly business. Retired when 60, but after the death of his son, Alfred, took charge until his son Spence returned from Canada. Again in charge when son called up during WW2, and then retired finally, and moved to Torquay.
CC, F 8.3.1963, 6b Obituary of Spence Robertson Galbraith († 1st March 1963, Durban), 76, and Managing Director of S & A Galbraith Ltd. On holiday. 5th son of late Samuel Galbraith. Spent 3 years in Canada. Business founded in 1865 at the top of the Pawn Steps (now J McIntyre). Limited Company c.1931, with other partners being his wife (†1961) and son, Hunter. He was the last survivor of Samuel Galbraith's family. Two other sons – William and Daniel – also died in Africa. Leaves two sons (Dr Samuel, Rutherglen, and Hunter, Cumnock) and a daughter (Margaret, Mrs W Marshall, Edinburgh)
