TITCHFIELD STREET, --- (1-3?)

TT, F 17.3.1899, 3e — Dean of Guild Court, Tuesday, property, Titchfield Street, for Provost White.

TITCHFIELD STREET, 14-30

List 12 — Continuous 1 storey range of small dwellings, typical of the earlier simple architecture of the town that is fast disappearing, only unrelated examples remain. No.14 dated 1797, No.28 dated 1799. C.

18-20, BURNS TAVERN

ACC Planning, B1558 — August 1957. Replace thatch roof with pantiled roof; Robert Hurd, Edinburgh, for Robert Howie.

WALLACE STREET

WSA 1644, F3.5.1912, 4d — Letter on Galston Street Names. Named for John Wallace, second son of John Wallace of Cairnhill, who was proprietor of Cessnock c.1778-87. He feued the Dales-Kilnknowe, and the street was formerly known as Dales Street.

WALLACE STREET, --

KWP 25.4.1863 — In Wallace Street, house of Hugh Finlay has taken on a handsome elevation, and its slated roof towers over the thatch uniformity

WALLACE STREET, 33, PICTURE HOUSE

WSA 1731, F 2.1.1914, 4a — [Review of events 1913]. Opened 27th June 1913.

ACC Planning, 4083 — Dexcember 1946. Alterations, for Margaret Gilroy.

ACC Planning, A9817 — March 1956. Alterations, for Galston Picture House Co; Lennox D(&?) Paterson, Glasgow.

EAC, Dick, Folder 22 — Closed as cinema, October 1963.

WALLACE STREET, 41

-- — Dated 1850 and 1895. 2 storey house, with modern disfigurements.

WALLACE STREET, 26-28

-- — Dated 1913. 2 storey, red sandstone.

WALLACE STREET, 34

BG 1/1/5, DoG Court 1.5.1911 — Plan approved. Villa, Wallace Street, for John Gemmell.

© Rob Close 2026