[THE BUILDINGS OF THE LACE INDUSTRY HAVE A SEPARATE FILE]

TRANSPORT

ROAD

BRIDGE

AA 12.1.1928 — New bridge over the Irvine has been formally opened.

BRIDGE, BROWN STREET

AA, Th 17.2.1881, 1b — Bridge Money application. £1000, for re-building.

CRAIGVIEW BRIDGE

List 15 — Wide flat segmental arch spanning River Irvine. C.

Hume — Early C19. An elegant single span, segmental arched bridge, with dressed stone arch-ring and rubble spandrels and abutments.

JEFFREY BRIDGE

KS 7.1.1882 — The Jeffrey Iron Bridge was opened last Saturday.

RAIL

STATION

ASH, F 6.4.1888, 8c — New station being built - the old one to be removed entirely.

AA 16.5.1889 — GSWR want tenders for station buildings at Newmilns. Plans at Engineer's Office, Glasgow.

AA 3.7.1890: WS 4.7.1890 — Opened last Tuesday. A great improvement on the old one.

VIADUCT

List 14 — Continuous viaduct of 26 arches designed on a curved incline spanning the river, the Green and continued beyond Union Street. GSWR extended in 1894 to Darvel. Ref: Groome, V, 111. B.

INDUSTRY

FLOUR MILL, LADESIDE

List 13 — Limewashed; stepped roof, 2 old gables to rear and modern additions. Large undershot water wheel at the back now disused. B.

Hume — Loudoun's Mill. 544371. Late C18 to Early C19 and later. A 2- and 3- storey yellow brick and rubble building, which formerly had a 10-spoke wood and iron low breast paddle wheel about 3' wide by 20' diameter. The yellow brick extension is dated 1914.

GAS WORKS

KH, F 22.8.1845, 4e — Gas Work "proceeds towards completion".

AA, Th 2.11.1865, 5f — Died 28.10.1865, John Campbell, 56, gas manager, Newmilns.

ACC Planning, A484 — December 1948. Spray Baths, Gas Works, for Newmilns & Greenholm T.C.

NEWMILNS NEW GAS CO

AA, Th 15.1.1874, 5f — Formed 11 months ago. Notice of first formal meeting. Chairman is Bailie Mackintosh.

PATE'S or PATIE'S MILL, [94 Brown Street, VR 1934/35]

Hume — Probably EC19 in its present form. A 3 storey and attic rubble building on a T-plan, now disused and gutted.

AA 14.10.1875 — Patie's Mill, of Allan Ramsay's song, "Lass of Patie's Mill", is presently being altered, and raised to two storeys.

WS 1.8.1890 — Present proprietor is James Scoular.

C1891 593-3-127 — James Scoular, miller, m47.

WSA, F 5.6.1914, 2d — For sale.

VR 1934/35 — Prop: Hugh F Bowie. Tenant: David Grossart. Occ: Archibald M Smith. called a gristing mill.

Mair, PHN, 32 — Demolished 1977.

BRIDGE

AA, Th 6.3.1851, 1a — Bridge Money application to rebuild and widen Patie's Mill Bridge on parish road from Newmilns to Galston/Sorn road.

SMITHY

Hume — 542373. Early C19. A single storey 3 bay rubble building, with a small roof ridge ventilator. To the rear is a corrugated iron extension.

(c) Rob Close 2026