GIFFEN FARM [Not in 1892/93 VR]

AA, Th 19.4.1838, 4b — Giffen Castle was unroofed after Giffen Farm was acquired by Robert Craig in 1726, and a new house was built at Giffen Mill (George King) with stone from the castle. 'About a year ago a large portion of the south wall fell with a noise like thunder, and on Thursday the 12th current, the walls facing the north and the east fell with a tremendous crash, so these stately side walls are to be seen no more'.

AA, Th 19.11.1840, 1d — For sale, Giffin Mill. "The dwelling house consists of two storeys, was built from part of the old castle of Giffin, and by a small repair could be made a comfortable and commodious residence."
