GENERAL

There is a fairly bland article on the agriculturalist Thomas Bone, on whose land, rented from Duke of Portland, these houses were built, in KS 1.8.1891.

| | |
|---|---|
| AA 16.2.1905 | We hear that a new residential locality is about to be opened up between Monkton and Troon. About 30 acres of Monktonhill Farm, possessed by Mr Thomas Bone, on its western side, have been feued off for the erection of detached residences - the largest single feu amounting in extent to 10 acres. |
